

Winners of Best Paper Awards Since 2000

2000	Dr Malcolm Alexander Professor Geoffrey Kiel Gavin Nicholson University of Queensland*	The Board of Directors – Firm Performance Nexus Revisited
2001	Dr Peter Lynch Professor Geoffrey Kiel Andrew Wollin University of Queensland*	Small may be good, but temporary exit may be even better: growth/survival trade-offs in the age mortality distribution for quasifirms
2002	Professor Ken Parry Victoria University of Wellington*	Social processes of leadership in New Zealand organisations
2003	Dr Tim Mazzarol University of Western Australia*	Strategic networking among small high technology firms: Evidence from the Western Australian ICT sector
2004	Jarrood Haar University of Waikato*	Work-Family Conflict and Employee Loyalty: Exploring the Moderating Effects of Positive Thinking Coping
2005	Herman Tse Marie Dasborough Professor Neal Ashkanasy University of Queensland*	Authentic Leadership and Team Member Perceptions of LMX
2006	John Carruthers Dr Sandra Kiffin-Petersen University of Western Australia*	Winning the Soul by Discourse: The Persuasiveness of Figurative Language in Management Communication
2007	Dr Kathryn Hayes Dr Anneke Fitzgerald University of Western Sydney*	Herding Cats: Practical and Theoretical Perspectives on Inter-Organisational Knowledge Transfer Across Research-Industry Boundaries
2008	Lena Zander Audra Mockaitis Victoria University of Wellington* Anne-Wil Harzaing University of Melbourne* and international collaborators	Getting closer to the action: examining leader's behavioural intent with GLOBE's leadership dimensions across 22 countries
2009	Dr Herman Tse Griffith University* Dr Warren C K Chiu Hong Kong Polytechnic University*	Transformational Leadership and Innovation: A Moderated Mediation Model

* Affiliation may change with time

