

Professor Ralph Stablein
Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand

Ralph's research and teaching focus on inquiry in organization studies. Ralph supervises postgraduate and doctoral student research. He takes an active role in developing the School's research capacity and in supporting individual staff member's research.

Ralph is co-editor of the Advances in Organization Studies book series published by Liber/ Copenhagen Business School. He currently serves on the editorial board of Academy of Management Learning and Education, Asia Pacific Journal of Human Resources, Journal of Organizational Change Management, Management Communication Quarterly, and Organization Management Journal. Ralph is a chair emeritus of the Critical Management Studies Interest Group of the Academy of Management.

Ralph's publications include contributions on epistemology, two edited volumes with Peter Frost entitled Renewing Research Practice and Doing Exemplary Research, and the chapter on data in the Handbook of Organization Studies. These and other contributions have featured on the syllabi of many postgraduate, especially doctoral, programmes including those at Alberta, Auckland, Benedictine, Bergen, Bolton, Bond, Boston, British Columbia, California (Irvine), Carnegie-Mellon, Case Western, Colorado (Denver), Columbia, Cornell, Emory, Hong Kong, Humbolt, IEA Aix-en-Provence, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Lethbridge, Luleå U.Tech, Lund, Kentucky, Nanyang Technological, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina (Charlotte), Massachusetts, Melbourne, Michigan, MIT, München, Navarra, Northwestern, Oklahoma, Oregon, Otago, Pompeu Fabra, Queens, Queensland, Seton Hall, Simon Fraser, South Florida, Southern Cross, Stanford, Texas, Tilburg, Tulsa, Virginia, Virginia Tech, Washington, Wisconsin, U.Tech-Sydney, Victoria of Wellington, West England, Western Sydney, Wharton, and York.

Research Interests

Ralph's broad area of research interest is organization studies with emphases on research methodology and critical management studies.

Ralph is particularly interested in the relationship of academic knowledge production and dissemination to the practices of organisation and society.