

Operations, Supply Chain and Service Management Special Interest Group

<http://www.anzam.org/research/special-interest-groups-sigs/operations-supply-chain-and-services-management/>

Melbourne Workshop Invitation

Friday, 23 May 2014 (2.00 pm to 5.30pm)

“Life Beyond the PhD: Building an Academic Career in Operations, Supply Chain & Service Management”

You are invited to a half-day workshop especially designed for doctoral students who wish to pursue an academic career in the operations, supply chain and service management discipline. The academic landscape has changed significantly over the past few years. This presents many new challenges for young scholars. What are these challenges and how can these be best addressed? Come and take part and listen to some of the most successful academics working at Melbourne-based universities. There is no registration fee for this workshop.

Program

1.30 pm	Registration
2.00 pm	Panel of doctoral students presenting their concerns/challenges
3.00 pm	Response from Early Career Academics - followed by Questions
3.30 pm	Afternoon Tea
4.00 pm	Response from Mid Career Academics - followed by Questions
4.30 pm	Response from Late Career/Senior Academics - followed by Questions
5.00 pm	Open Discussion and Final Wrap-up
5.30 pm	Close.
6.00 pm	Drinks and Dinner (pay your own).

Speakers

Dr Vikram Bhakoo (Melbourne Univ.), Dr John Hopkins (Swinburne Univ.), Dr Kamrul Ahsan (Victoria Univ.) A/Prof. Daniel Prajogo (Monash Univ.), A/Prof. Prakash Singh (Melbourne Univ.), Professor Stuart Orr (Deakin Univ.) Professor Shams Rahman (RMIT Univ.), Prof. Amrik Sohal (Monash Univ.)

Venue

School of Business IT & Logistics, College of Business, RMIT University
445 Swanston Street, Melbourne (Building 80, Level 8, Room 10)

Further information

Professor Amrik Sohal (ANZAM Past President and Life Fellow) amrik.sohal@monash.edu
Professor Shams Rahman shams.rahman@rmit.edu.au

RSVP by Monday, 19 May, 2014

Anne Anderson, ANZAM Secretariat: anzam@griffith.edu.au