

ANZAM

AUSTRALIAN & NEW ZEALAND
ACADEMY OF MANAGEMENT

Professor Robert Wood Melbourne Business School

Robert Wood is Professor of Management at Melbourne Business School. Prior appointments include Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Western Australia and visiting Professor at the Kellogg School, Northwestern University.

Robert completed his PhD in organizational behaviour at the University of Washington (Seattle) and did post doctoral studies at Stanford University Psychology Department. He is Editor of Applied Psychology an International Review. He was awarded the AGSM Alumni Outstanding Teacher Award (1998) and the inaugural AGSM Award for Excellence in Research (2002). He is a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences - Australia, the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management; the American Psychological Association (Division 14) and the International Association of Applied Psychologists.

Robert has designed, developed and delivered programs for senior managers and provided advice in many Australian and overseas corporations, including Saudi Aramco, Dow Chemical, Telstra, P&O Ports, Dubai Ports World and the Hong Kong Government. He has delivered programs to managers in the USA, Australia, Malaysia, Thailand, Sri Lanka, UAE, the Philippines, and Hong Kong. He was Consultant to OECD (Paris) from 1990 to 1996. During that period he conducted several multi-national studies of pay schemes and performance appraisal practices for managers in Europe, the USA, Japan and Australia.

Robert has served on the Boards of Royal Perth Hospital, the Australian Graduate School of Management and the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management and the University of Western Australia Senate. He currently sits on the Executive Boards of the Academy of Social Sciences Australia and the International Association of Applied Psychology.

RESEARCH AREAS

- Change Management
- Ethics and Sustainability
- Judgement and Decision Making
- Leadership & Diversity