

Advertisement for one Co-Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Management Reviews (IJMR)

The British Academy of Management (BAM) is seeking to appoint one Co-Editor-in-Chief for the International Journal of Management Reviews (IJMR) to take effect from January 2020 when Professor Caroline Gatrell steps down at the end of her second term of office. The term of office is initially for 3 years in the first instance with the possibility of a renewal. Co-Editor-in-Chief, Dr Dermot Breslin will continue in his current role, working with the incoming Co-Editor as they transition into the new role.

IJMR is currently in 20th volume and has established an excellent reputation for publishing high quality articles across the full range of business and management disciplines. Its impact factor currently stands at 6.489 and it is securely positioned within the very top tier of European based journals, being ranked 8/140 in business and 5/209 in management; it is ranked as 3 in the Chartered ABS guide. Under the recent editorships, professional editorial processes have been introduced with the consequence that submissions, electronic downloads and readership have all increased significantly.

In seeking new Co-Editors-in-Chief, BAM is looking for someone with a clear vision for the journal, enthusiasm, excellent organizational skills and the appropriate scholarly knowledge and standing to maintain and further develop the international reputation of IJMR. BAM seeks Co-Editors-in-Chief from a diverse range of backgrounds, institution types and geographical regions. We particularly welcome applications from groups previously under-represented, including women, people from black and ethnic minority backgrounds, and disabled people.

This is an exciting and challenging role and it is expected that the candidates will normally have had significant previous editorial experience (e.g. as an associate editor, special issue guest editor and/or as a member of journal editorial boards). Successful candidates will also have extensive experience as a reviewer for management journals, capacity to handle a demanding workload, ability to work constructively with authors, reviewers and BAM, and be familiar with current issues in journal publication.

Further particulars are available at www.bam.ac.uk or by contacting Madeleine Barrows at the BAM office (mbarrows@bam.ac.uk). Applicants can contact Emma Bell (mmailto:mbarrows@contact.com (n.cornelius@contact.com), Co-Vice Chairs of the BAM Research and Publications Committee, for an informal discussion of the nature of the editorial task and support that BAM gives its Editors.

Application should be made by sending a CV and covering letter to Madeleine Barrows, CEO, British Academy of Management at mbarrows@bam.ac.uk by noon on Friday 21st December 2018. Interviews with the BAM Research and Publications Committee appointments panel will take place in London in January 2019.