Last Member update, ANZAM was pleased to announce, ANZAM President, Kerry Brown received a 'Companionship award' from the British Academy of Management.

ANZAM would also like to congratulate:

Professor Xavier Castañer and Professor Greg Bamber.

Companionship of the BAM recognises outstanding contributions to the field of management. In 2021 BAM welcomed a few new Companions including:

BAM's (Sir Cary) Cooper Medal for Outstanding Leadership and Contribution was awarded to Professor Greg Bamber of Monash University in Australia for his longstanding and active support for BAM in multiple arenas, for his strong history of mentorship, in addition to his own standing as a leading scholar in his field. (We understand that this is the first time that BAM has awarded such a medal to anyone who is based outside the UK.)

Xavier Castañer is Professor of Strategy at the University of Lausanne in Switzerland, and is President of IFSAM, the International Federation of Scholarly Associations of Management.

Kerry Brown is Professor of Employment and Industry in the School of Business and Law at Edith Cowan University, Australia and is President of ANZAM, the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management.

Applications close 6th October 2021
