ANZAM Associate Member Professional Development 2022

Professional development for HDR management students

In 2022 ANZAM will be offering a series of 10 one-hour 'lunchbox' (depending on your location!)

PD sessions on a range of topics designed to support you on your research journey. Each session will commence with a presentation from a fellow student/s and or 'research student-friendly' academic (who hasn't forgotten what it's like) with experience in a certain area, leaving space for questions and discussion.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

ANZAM Associate members and Honours, Masters, PhD and coursework Masters students undertaking research projects in management and associated disciplines are all welcome to attend.

BOOK NOW for SESSION 2

Session 2: An Academic Career in the New Normal – Mission Possible?

Presented by Dr Matthew Xerri, Senior Lecturer in HRM at Griffith Business School and HDR Convenor Extraordinaire. Matt will share his experience of the journey from PhD and casual academic to mid-career full-timer. Is it for you, and is it possible?

Wednesday 16 March, 12pm (AEST/Qld) – 1 hour

ANZAM does our best to ensure that information contained in the Update is accurate at the time of publication. However, ANZAM cannot be held responsible for accuracy and veracity of information contained in this update, especially those articles supplied to us.

ANZAM acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the land on which we meet and work, and all Traditional Owners of country throughout Australia and New Zealand. We recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' continuing connection to land, place, waters and community. We pay our respects to their cultures, country and elders past present and emerging. ANZAM recognises the unique role of Māori as Tangata Whenua and embraces Te Tiriti o Waitangi recognising Māori as tino rangitiratanga of Aotearoa/New Zealand while embracing the three guiding principles of the Treaty – Partnership Participation and Protection. We will endeavour to implement bicultural policies and practices that incorporate and value Māori cultural concepts, values and practices.
