Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management

Member Update

2/9/2022

Welcome to this edition of the ANZAM Member's update. ANZAM has opened its Early Bird Conference Registration. To attend this year's conference you are required to be a current financial ANZAM member and pay for registration. The Early bird rates for conference registration close Friday 30th September.

This year ANZAM will be holding its Doctoral workshop on Monday 5th December, with the Conference welcome event late afternoon on the same day. The Conference will run two full days – Tuesday 6th and Wednesday 7th December and the Conference Dinner (tickets must be pre-purchased) will be held on Tuesday evening at Skypoint in Surfers Paradise.

The Doctoral workshop and Conference will be held at Griffith University Gold Coast campus, our host for the events. If you are attending the Doctoral workshop and Conference, as an ANZAM member, you will receive a discount for attending both events.

ANZAM is looking forward to a return to Face to face delivery. However, ANZAM is providing virtual attendance options (conference only) for those who are unable to join us in person for the conference.

ANZAM is committed to a sustainable future and to improving the social, economic and environmental wellbeing of the community. ANZAM is dedicated to environmental improvements that foster a sustainable future and lead to social and economical improvements in the community we do business.

Kerry Brown,

ANZAM President 2021-2022

ANZAM offers professional development sessions for its members. Some of these are specifically tailored to Associate/Student members, Heads of Schools or Institutional members.

What's coming up?

Place these dates in your diary so you don't miss out!

As an ANZAM member you will be notified via email of all available PD sessions. If you know someone who is not an ANZAM member but interested in a session, non-members can attend most sessions for a small administration fee, which will be charged after completing registration. ASSOCIATE member PD sessions will be charged at $15 each session and T&L PD sessions will be charged at $20 per session for non-members. ANZAM members can attend these sessions FREE of charge!!

DATE	SESSION DETAILS
12/09/22 1.30pm-3pm (Sydney/AEDT)	T&amp;L PD SESSION Networking 101– Making the most of your conference experience Networking can be a powerful way to make connections, build relationships and exchange information and resources. However, networking is an activity and a skill that may challenge you or take you out of your comfort zone. In this workshop, Kerry Brown and Kevin Lowe support you on your networking journey and offer helpful advice on making the most of your conference experience. With the upcoming ANZAM Conference in December and in moving back to face-to-face conference participation, it is timely to consider making the most of your conference experience. As an outcome of this workshop, you will know what is networking and have a better idea of the possibilities of networking to build your academic career, have tips to start your networking, and we hope, be able to attend conferences with a renewed sense of purpose and confidence. Presenters: Professor Kerry Brown, President ANZAM and Professor of Employment and Industry at Edith Cowan University has extensive experience in negotiation, networking and collaboration. Her workshops co-led with Associate Professor Dorothy Wardale, Curtin University on Networking for Introverts are a popular topic for emerging academics. Professor Kevin Lowe, Kevin B. Lowe is Professor in Leadership in the Business School at the University of Sydney. A recognized leader in the field of leadership, Kevin is on ten editorial boards including The Leadership Quarterly (Associate Editor), Journal of Management, Journal of Organizational Behavior, Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of Leadership and Organizational Studies, Leadership, Journal of World Business, and Group and Organization Management. REGISTER NOW:  https://us06web.zoom.us/join/zoom/register/tZYucO2gpzMjE9Z1AmMHcKLSe1qcQSWaQ4qU

21/09/22 12pm-1pm (AEST/QLD)	ASSOCIATE / HDR PD SESSION 8 – A juggling act of pursuing a PhD, university teaching, engaging with industry... and yes, life! Dr Subas Dhakal, UNE Business School More information and registration details to be provided shortly.
13/10/22 12.30pm-1.30pm (Sydney/AEDT)	T&amp;L PD SESSION The Art of Academic Writing and Publishing for English as Second Language (ESL) Researchers. Host and Organiser: Associate Professor Chia-Yen (Chad) Chiu, Adelaide Business School Panel: Professor Stephen Zhang, Dr Johnathan Baker, Dr Val Caines, and Christian Hoyer (Adelaide Business School) Academic performance is judged in part on one's level of linguistic competence in English. As a consequence, scholars who wish to succeed on the academic market must be able to write in English not only fluently but also eloquently. This places non-native English speakers in a disadvantageous position. The goal of this session is therefore to have a discussion regarding the various challenges that non-native English speakers face when writing and publishing in English. ANZAM will bring together a panel of both experienced and early-career researchers who approach the theme from diverse perspectives. REGISTER NOW: https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMocOCpqzovGdKaWVJPBKtpxXVu-4pJyUf2

27/10/22 12pm-1.30pm (AEDT/Sydney)	T&amp;L PD SESSION To be or not to be social: Social media for academics To be or not to be social: Social media for academics is an online, interactive workshop that delves into the use of social media, specifically, LinkedIn and Twitter, for personal, professional academic staff brand building. At the conclusion of the course, participants will have developed an understanding on how to leverage social media for personal Academic brand development. Participants will learn about the importance of having a personal brand building strategy that aligns with both personal and organisational development and branding opportunities. Personal brand building opportunities primarily on LinkedIn and also on Twitter will be discussed. Through an evaluation of extant social media content, participants will be guided to scrutinize for effectiveness, impact and engagement. Practical advice about tactics for building a personal and organisational brand will be discussed. Participants will be supported through the (re)building of their LinkedIn profile, followed by the preparation and publishing of a post relevant to their current position. Dr Violetta Wilk, Edith Cowan University REGISTER NOW: https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZludO-hpzljHtArdXibflcsHHzJvi79QKkl

08/11/22 12pm-1pm (AEST/QLD)	ASSOCIATE / HDR PD SESSION 10 – Alternate approaches to creating and disseminating impactful research: Grounded ways of approaching impact creation and measurement Presenters from the Yunus Centre, Griffith University More information and registration details to be provided shortly.
17/11/22 12pm-1.30pm (AEDT/Sydney)	T&amp;L PD SESSION Building capability for industry research The realities and opportunities for new industry-engaged approaches to PhD research and supervision. The audience: Great opportunity for academics and PhDs to gain tips about how to develop and support industry projects and create industry-relevant research projects. Dr James Cowley, Dr Samantha Hall and Dr Barry Elsey Dr James Cowley James has built from scratch, owned and led many organisations over the last 45 years many which have lasted decades. In early days they covered education and preventative health (UK, Europe and Australia) and then commercial business. All of them achieved major innovations and results; were involved with innovations that today are part of life’s fabric and provided services or evidence based consulting to the top (CEO’s; Boards; Department Secretaries; Ministers) of the largest Business and Government organisations here and overseas. Many of his team members have achieved very influential roles around the world. He has conducted over $100M (2001 figures) of commercial research; Because of a long term interest in why Industry-Universities struggle to utilise knowledge, he has supervised Executives doing Doctorates in their spare time, examined Doctorates, been an Adjunct Prof and tried to understand the gap that exists and how to close it. He did his own PhD in his spare time, whilst running a 130 person organisation. He has been heavily involved in philanthropic innovation including the establishment of drop in/homeless centres in the 1970s’; mentoring of start-ups; and many other initiatives. Dr Samantha Hall We spend our days interacting with different space – from our homes to the office, the park, or a cafe. People experience these spaces emotionally, mentally and physically. Dr Hall has spent her career seeking to understand the different ways spaces impact people, and how to better inform design using empirical data. She has built various award-winning technology solutions to gather large-scale feedback from users about the built environments they use. Samantha began the journey into this field with an MSc in Environmental Science and a PhD in sustainable cities and buildings. She went on to complete a post doctorate on evidence-based decision-making for healthy building design. After winning an innovation award from Curtin University, Samantha stepped into the world of entrepreneurialism. In 2020 she launched Campus Intuition with global partners, a specialist agency for higher education institutions. She has created software that helps universities measure and improve campus experience for students and staff. Campus Intuition’s clients include world-leading universities across Australia, the UK and Europe. Dr Barry Elsey Barry has supervised over 80 higher degrees by research (HDR) since he first began in 1980. The majority have been PhDs with some DBAs, a fewer number of M.Phil and other research degrees. Most of Barry’s students have been drawn from industry contexts, typically senior levels such as Owner-mangers, CEOs, CFOs, MDs and others with extensive lived experience in a wide variety of industries (defence, health, pharma, education, manufacturing, banking and finance, government, media and so on).

	The greater number come from Asian countries, notably China, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand and a few from the Middle East (Israel, Iran and Saudi Arabia) and a few more from Europe (Germany, Italy and Russia) and even two from the USA. Before migrating to Australia Barry supervised a few Brits doing PhDs and since 1988 in Australia quite a substantial number of local as well as international students. "I write this because I have had to approach supervision of such intelligent and experienced adult learners from industry and international contexts in an individual and customised way, often involving some conflict with the rigidities of university bureaucracy and policy frameworks. In my view university leaders have much to learn about working at such close quarters with industry leaders, without making them feel patronised and losing 'face' because supervisors are unable or willing to 'stretch and bend' and adapt to different cultural contexts. What has made my work so satisfying and successful is to follow the Chinese mantra of being 'Guide, philosopher and friend' and concentrate my focus on the special kind of learning journey doing research at a higher degree level, and treat the university context as background. This has made my relationship with the bureaucratic politics of university somewhat ambivalent at times!" REGISTER NOW  https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0rc-2urT4tHdwta-Y9q0VXyEAIL73oWEcl

19th ANZAM Operations, Supply Chain and Services Management Symposium

MONASH University

25th to 26th September, 2022

Building Resilience in Operations & Supply Chains during Major Disruptions

The 19th ANZAM Operations, Supply Chain and Services Management Symposium is hosted by The Department of Management at Monash University. The Symposium theme for 2021 is Building Resilience in Operations & Supply Chains during Major Disruptions. Resilience in supply chains (SC) is as vital for organisations as immune systems are for human beings. Resilience capabilities enable recovery and adaptation when stakeholders in SC are exposed to and affected by disruptions and uncertain factors, ranging from natural disasters, geopolitical risks, pandemics, market changes, forecasting accuracy, to execution problems. All these factors have significant negative impacts on organisations' resilience.
