

16th Asia-Pacific Symposium on Emotions in Worklife (APSEW)

Thursday, 8th of December 2022
Griffith University Business School
Gold Coast Campus, Brisbane, Australia

CALL FOR PAPERS

You are invited to submit a paper to the 16th Asia-Pacific Symposium on Emotions in Worklife (APSEW). The event will be hosted by Griffith University Business School at its Gold Coast Campus on Thursday, the 8th of December 2022, from 9am till 5pm. The symposium follows the ANZAM Conference which will be held at the Gold Coast from the 6th to the 7th of December 2022.

The submission deadline has now been extended the 7th of November 2022.

This annual event has established itself as a valuable opportunity for obtaining collegial feedback on ongoing research as well as networking with other postgraduate students, academics and practitioners interested in the study of emotions in work settings.

Thanks to generous sponsorship by Centre for Work, Organisation and Wellbeing (WOW) and the Griffith University Business School Dept. of Employment Relations and Human Resources, as well as the UQ Business School, registration for this year's APSEW Conference will be free.

See next page for submission details

Submission Guidelines

Submission Types:

1. Oral Presentation – you will need to submit an abstract of 300-500 words describing your project/paper. This can be a work-in-progress or developmental paper.
2. Poster Presentation – same as for oral presentation.
3. Group Presentation - Examples include an innovative panel, hot topic discussion selection, or a short symposium. Group proposals should provide a 400 to 800-word outline of the topic including a short description of each member's contribution. The key criterion in evaluating a group proposal is that it provides an efficient way to use our limited time in a way that provides the most benefit to participants in advancing their research.

Deadline for submission is now the 7th of November 2022.

Submission Procedure:

Format:

The first page should include the following information:

- Title of the paper, 14 pt. bold, in capital letters, indicating the type of submission
- Three to five key words
- Name(s), email address(es), and institutional affiliation(s) of the author(s)

The second and third pages should include a 300-500 word abstract of your paper

- Text should use 12 pt Times New Roman font, with double-line spacing and 25 mm margins on A4 paper size.
 - Use additional pages for tables and/or figures.
 - References – Use any recognised style (Harvard, AMJ, APA), but be consistent.
- To submit your paper simply email Prof. Troth at a.troth@griffith.edu.au
 - We reserve the right to assign submissions to session formats, including asking poster submissions to be delivered as presentations and vice versa.
 - If you wish to propose an innovative panel, hot topic discussion session, or short symposium, feel free to do so, bearing in mind that we wish to use our limited time in the way that will most benefit participants and advance their research.
 - Posters will be discussed briefly in moderated roundtable sessions following poster viewing.
 - In keeping with the roundtable format, we welcome papers describing 'works in progress or developmental papers.

ANZAM Travel Support Scholarships

- Doctoral students submitting papers to the symposium may also apply for an AUD$500 ANZAM Travel Support Scholarship. Clearly indicate that you are a doctoral student.
- A limited number of scholarships are available and will be awarded based on the quality of the paper submission.
- Scholarship holders need to be ANZAM Members (or Associate Members) and must be registered for the ANZAM Conference.
- Please follow the submission guidelines and submit your paper directly via e-mail to Program Chair Prof. Ashlea Troth at a.troth@griffith.edu.au
