

ANZAM MEMBER UPDATE

Wednesday – 3/5/2023

JOIN US FOR THE 36TH ANZAM CONFERENCE TUESDAY 5 – THURSDAY 7 DECEMBER 2023 WELLINGTON, NEW ZEALAND

The 2023 ANZAM Conference will be hosted by the Wellington School of Business & Government and take place across three days at Te Papa Tongarewa the Museum of New Zealand, located near the heart of Wellington at the edge of the capital's stunning harbour.

Our theme, “Changing Management Values and Practices for a Sustainable Future”, speaks to the fundamental shifts occurring in and required of management and organizations today, as they seek a sustainable future and to adapt to the challenges of rapidly changing business environments. We invite you to contribute to the conference by providing new insights that address the evolving needs of different stakeholders, as well as incorporate and learn from a broader set of values and practices.

On behalf of ANZAM and the Wellington School of Business & Government, we invite you to join us in generating novel perspectives, promoting innovative management scholarship and contributing to enhanced wellbeing and a sustainable future. With an engaging in-person only conference experience, grab this opportunity to connect to scholars from around the world at ANZAM 2023. A Doctoral Workshop will be run in conjunction with the conference on Monday 4 December 2023.

How to respond to Examiners' feedback

Featuring:
Emeritus Professor Anneke Fitzgerald,
Griffith University

How to Respond to Examiners' Feedback

Examination of a thesis marks the culmination of a long research journey and as such, comes with anxiety about receiving and adequately responding to examiners' feedback. We are inviting again Emeritus Professor Anneke Fitzgerald from Griffith University to take us through practical tips for crafting a response that thoroughly addresses examiners' concerns. Anneke has supervised 18 HDR students to thesis completion in her distinguished career and is particularly passionate about HDR development.
