ANZAM – Special Interest Groups (SIGs)

At each ANZAM Conference, ANZAM Special Interest groups may run a workshop. The Conference proceedings will provide the day/time.

This year, our newest SIG – “Wellbeing @ Work” will be launching by running a symposium.

Tuesday 5th December 2023, 1.30-3.10pm session NZDT

This symposium will:

- a) showcase the world-leading and impactful wellbeing at work research that is being led by research centres across Australia and New Zealand and
- b) foster collaborations on exciting workplace health and wellbeing issues with the aim of fostering excellent and impactful research.

Attendance will provide insights into some of the key challenges that ANZAM researchers are addressing through their innovative projects as well as highlighting some exciting emerging themes and projects.

JMO Special Issue-Call for Papers

Authentic Leadership: 20-Year Review

Guest Editors:

Kevin Lowe, PhD, The University of Sydney, kevin.b.lowe@sydney.edu.au

Andrei Lux, PhD, Edith Cowan University, a.lux@ecu.edu.au

Deadline for Submissions: 30 June 2024

The most recent Special Issue on authentic leadership was published in Leadership and edited by Iszatt-White et al. (2021). Their focus echoed the times, following the critique by Alvesson and Einola (2019) and the subsequent exchange between Gardner et al. (2021) in The Leadership Quarterly, which set the scene for an impassioned critical retrospective of the shortcomings of authentic leadership theory. There was an appetite for this kind of work at the time but given the critical and backward-looking emphases of the Special Issue, it did more to encourage scholars to reconsider the merits of authentic leadership, than it did to advance the field.
